

The Rev. Canon Dr. Lisa Corry is originally from Michigan and has lived in Arkansas for almost 15 years - and loves the many places to hike, bike, and enjoy time with others. Lisa earned a bachelor's degree in the College of Communications with emphasis in economics and a minor in Russian History at Michigan State University.

While working with student ministries at Gordon College, in Wenham, MA, Lisa earned a Master of Arts in Education with an emphasis in Adolescent Development from Gordon Conwell Theological Seminary in Hamilton, MA and later, a Doctorate in Education from Talbot Seminary in La Mirada, CA. Her dissertation focus is spirituality development. Lisa's journey into Arkansas began at John Brown University where she taught part-time in the Bible Department and worked with Student Ministries.

Lisa came to Little Rock in 2017 after a year of study at the University of the South School of Theology in Sewanee, TN to earn a Diploma in Anglican Studies. Lisa was ordained to the priesthood in December 2017 and serves as Sub-Dean at Trinity Episcopal Cathedral in Little Rock.
